“Roy was an outstanding keynote presenter and talked about the importance of trust in building relationships and making an organization more efficient and effective. Roy spent time with delegates to understand what was happening in the field level and helped tie together what was presented throughout the conference.” Sean Rush, President & CEO Junior Achievement Worldwide

“You provided our leadership with powerful presentations and programs that helped us to improve our communications, operations, and ability to work more effectively. I would encourage anyone searching for a powerful speaker to engage you to motivate and inspire people.” – Julie Young, Founder Florida Virtual School, Vice President/Managing Director ASU Prep Academy

“His keynote presentation was inspirational, impactful, and practical information that people can put to use immediately in their personal, business, and civic lives. Roy has a great command of his material and the dynamics of leadership.” – Brian Watson, Managing Partner, Watson Sloane
